About Capitol Pathways

Established in 2016 by the Citizens League, Capitol Pathways is the only paid internship program in Minnesota creating a policy career pathway for college students of color. During each state legislative session, student participants are placed in government offices, nonprofits, corporations, and law firms where they can gain experience and build relationships in and around the Capitol.

Join us for this live virtual event celebrating the achievements and bright futures of this next generation of leaders!

End of Session Celebration Sponsorship

Join us to celebrate the conclusion of the fifth year of Capitol Pathways with a live virtual event on June 11!

For this free online event, we'll welcome a panel of community leaders to discuss why representation and identity matters, and why are programs like Capitol Pathways important. Our panel includes:

- Pahoua Yang Hoffman, Senior Vice President for Community Impact at the Saint Paul & Minnesota Foundation, Capitol Pathways Co-Founder, and former Executive Director of the Citizens League
- Acoa Lee Ellis, Senior Vice President of Community Impact at Greater Twin Cities United Way, current Capitol Pathways intern host
- Brandon Williams, Criminal Justice and Safe Communities Fellow at the Minneapolis Foundation, Capitol Pathways Alum, 2018
