About Capitol Pathways

Since 2016, the Capitol Pathways program from the Citizens League places college students who identify as Black, Indigenous, or People of Color (BIPOC) in paid internships with government offices, nonprofits, corporations, and law firms where they can gain legislative experience and build relationships in and around the Capitol.

Join us for this event celebrating the achievements and bright futures of this next generation of BIPOC civic leaders!

Sponsorship

Join us to celebrate the conclusion of the seventh year of Capitol Pathways with an in-person event on June 22, 2022!

In recognition of our fantastic student interns and in celebration of the only paid internship program in Minnesota that creates a policy career pathway BIPOC college students, we gather annually to mark a successful program year. In its seventh year, we will recognize the accomplishments of 32 students and 32 host organizations working together to broaden access for the next generation of BIPOC leaders in policy.
